“Our vision is clear: to emerge as a global leader in energy transitions, infrastructure innovation and sustainable solutions that empower communities and industries alike. We will continue to lead with innovation in power transmission, prioritising import substitution to enhance self-reliance and sectoral resilience”

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS,
I write to you to share the story of a landmark year- a year where Advait Energy Transitions Limited did more than grow our financial numbers.

FY25 stands as a testament to our collective purpose and the relentless spirit that defines our Advait family. It was a year where ambition met execution and our vision for a sustainable future became our present reality.

Our financial performance narrates a story of unprecedented success. Revenue from Operations soared to ₹399 Cr, a remarkable 91% YoY growth. This is the finest revenue figure ever recorded in our group's history. Our EBITDA reached ₹51 Cr, a robust 40% YoY growth, reflecting the core health of our business. This record-breaking success was no accident- it was intelligently crafted, driven by vision and executed with precision.

EBITDA margins at 12.7% dipped from 17.3% in FY24. This was expected, as the Company has made investments in diverse growth engines and market expansion, which will yield significant returns as we move forward.

These numbers are a direct result of our ability to navigate and excel within the dynamic landscape of Power Transmission and Energy Transition. The success we have witnessed is a powerful affirmation of our strategic diversification and our capability to deliver across various business verticals.

Interestingly, our future is appreciably promising and already in motion. The strength of our order book is the clearest indicator of the road ahead. At the end of FY25, our Order Book swelled to ₹503 Cr, an astounding 146% YoY increase, which has further expanded to ₹800 crore by the end of May 2025.

This surge directly reflects the market's confidence in our capabilities and value proposition, serving as a powerful assurance of our growth trajectory for the years to come.

Since our listing, Advait has embraced each phase of growth with conviction, clarity and a sense of purpose. We have evolved from a niche transmission tools supplier into a multi-vertical energy solutions provider, consistently challenging boundaries and turning ambition into achievement.

The past year reaffirmed the strength of our foundation and the depth of our people. Despite global volatility and domestic shifts, our team displayed remarkable resilience and delivered excellence across operations, partnerships and innovation. Our ambition is rooted in the pursuit of scale, guided by a belief in building something enduring, meaningful and transformative.

Our vision is clear: to emerge as a global leader in energy transitions, infrastructure innovation and sustainable solutions that empower communities and industries alike. We will continue to lead with innovation in power transmission, prioritising import substitution to enhance self-reliance and sectoral resilience. This approach will enable us to expand our market share within a growing market.

Additionally, we continuously explore strategic partnerships with global technology companies to manufacture niche segment products in India under the NRE division. This is our contribution to Atmanirbhar Bharat, ensuring the energy systems of tomorrow are not only clean and resilient but are also “Made in India, for the world.”

At Advait, we don't simply adapt to change; we lead it. With each project, partnership and product, we redefine what it means to deliver impact at scale. From powering grids to pioneering green hydrogen, from scaling solar energy to enabling carbon market solutions- our work reflects our belief that energy can and should transform lives.

Looking forward, we are entering an era of accelerated scale and strategic discipline. We are investing in talent, technology and trusted partnerships. We are expanding our manufacturing capabilities, deepening our EPC execution network and enhancing our innovation edge.

But above all, we remain rooted in our core values- trust, transparency and transformation. These are more than words; they are the foundation of every decision we make and every interaction we have with stakeholders.

At Advait, we will not follow energy transition- we will lead it.

Thank you for being part of our journey.

Warm regards,
SHALIN SHETH
Founder & Managing Director

The energy transition is a marathon, not a sprint, and our responsibility is to ensure Advait is built for resilience, momentum and long-term impact. We are keenly aware that our financial journey must be as sustainable as the solutions we offer.

DEAR
STAKEHOLDERS,

As I reflect on the financial year, I find myself looking beyond the balance sheet and into the heart of our mission. In our industry, numbers are not merely figures on a page; they are the concrete and steel of the transmission towers, the hum of a newly connected grid, and the promise of a greener future.

This year, our financial performance has not just reflected growth; it has built a stronger foundation for our collective vision.

Our journey is a testament to disciplined growth. Rather than following convention, we carved out a differentiated walkway that aligned with our ambition.

The energy transition is a marathon, not a sprint and our responsibility is to ensure Advait is built for resilience, momentum and long-term impact. We are keenly aware that our financial journey must be as sustainable as the solutions we offer.

This year, we have made deliberate choices to optimise our capital structure, a move recognised by CRISIL's upgrade of our credit ratings.

The upgrade reflects the diversification of the business risk profile with the introduction of new products under the company's power transmission and solutions division, which is expected to drive growth in existing business, in addition to expected growth from the New Renewable Energy (NRE) division.

We are exploring innovative financing instruments, such as green bonds, to attract mission-aligned capital that will fuel our expansion into cutting-edge sectors like green electrolyser manufacturing. Our efforts are not limited to securing capital; they are an endeavour to build a financial ecosystem that mirrors our commitment to a sustainable world.

Looking forward, the global transition presents unprecedented opportunities for a company like ours- one that seamlessly merges traditional power infrastructure with new-age clean energy technologies. Our financial stewardship will be focused on three pillars: funding our next phase of innovation, maintaining a robust balance sheet to weather market volatilities, and forging partnerships that create synergistic value. We will continue to invest in our people and technology, ensuring that our intellectual capital matches our financial strength.

In closing, the past year has been a period of profound progress and strategic fortification. We have translated vision into value and ambition into a strong, resilient financial reality. I extend my sincere gratitude to our shareholders, partners, and the entire Advait team for their unwavering support and dedication. Together, we are not just reporting on a successful year; we are laying the financial groundwork for a new, cleaner, and more self-sustaining India.

Sincerely,
REJAL SHETH
Director & Chief Financial Officer

DEAR
SHAREHOLDERS,

As the world pivots toward sustainable energy, our journey is far more than building infrastructure or deploying advanced technologies. It is about cultivating a workforce and culture that are as resilient and future-ready as the solutions we deliver. This year marked a defining chapter in our evolution- a deliberate and strategic shift toward the future of energy. And at the heart of this transformation lies our greatest strength: our people.

This transition is powered not only by technology, but by the relentless ingenuity, entrepreneurial spirit, and unwavering dedication of every individual on our team. At Advait, we are not just building businesses- we are cultivating a culture rooted in family values, while growing with the mindset of a modern, professional corporate.

Each business unit thrives with entrepreneurial independence, driving innovation from within. Our inclusive culture empowers people, nurtures young talent, and champions sustainability. With a strong track record of success, we invest deeply in training, fostering intrapreneurship, and ensuring growth is not just consistent- but meaningful.

As we explore new technological frontiers, from electrolyser manufacturing to grid-connected clean energy, our communications strategy has also evolved- reflecting the depth of our work and inspiring action among customers, policymakers, investors, and communities alike.

Through thought leadership platforms, digital storytelling, and stakeholder engagement, Advait has emerged as more than an energy company- we are a voice in the climate transition dialogue.

The road to net zero is paved with human potential. As we enter our next phase of growth, our focus will remain on nurturing ecosystems of intrapreneurs, amplifying our purpose-driven voice, and embedding sustainability into every corner of our culture. Our learning and development initiatives will extend beyond technical skills to foster the leadership, collaboration, and emotional intelligence required for a truly impactful organisation. Because for us, true impact starts with our people- and extends to the world around us.

Yours truly,
RUTVI SHETH-KUNDALIA
Head, Human Resources & Strategy

Our collective focus will be on delivering this landmark facility, designed to set new benchmarks for the industry. It will strengthen our operational excellence, accelerate our clean energy ambitions, and ensure that Advait continues to lead with purpose and performance.

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS,

It's a privilege to share this note as I step into a pivotal chapter of my journey with Advait. Having been deeply involved in the Company's operations across various roles, FY25 marked a significant milestone: I have been entrusted with leading our Commercial Department, a function that sits at the heart of Advait's operational and strategic success.

Responsible for sourcing all inputs for our production facilities and capital projects, this department plays a critical role in shaping our profitability and long-term resilience.

I approach this responsibility with humility and resolve. What gives me confidence is the exceptional team I have the honour of leading- professionals whose energy, expertise, and commitment continue to inspire me every day.

This year, we undertook a transformative step by establishing the Central Procurement & Purchase (CP&P) Department- a first-of-its-kind centralised unit within Advait. CP&P now governs all sourcing and purchasing activities across the organisation, driving consistency, cost optimisation, and robust vendor partnerships.

The CP&P Department will play a pivotal role in ensuring the seamless execution and financial success of all EPC projects. By rigorously monitoring operational and financial performance, the team safeguards project integrity from initiation to completion.

Procurement will be managed with precision- securing the right materials from the right vendors at the right price and payment terms-ensuring that no element of value is compromised. This disciplined approach not only protects margins but also accelerates delivery timelines.

In time, the department will emerge as the backbone of project assurance, enabling timely execution, cost efficiency, and maximum profitability across our portfolio. This structural shift is more than operational- it's strategic. It reflects our commitment to scale with discipline and to embed excellence into every layer of our commercial function.

My time spent closely with the team has deepened my understanding of the nuances that define this function. That insight has fuelled the implementation of structured systems that enhance efficiency, transparency, and accountability across verticals.

These changes are already yielding tangible results, and they will serve as a strong foundation for sustainable growth.

Looking ahead, I am proud to lead another transformative initiative: the development and commissioning of Advait's state-of-the-art manufacturing facility for Green Hydrogen (GH2) equipment.

We are acquiring a 150,000-square-meter plot to establish a world-class manufacturing hub that will house multiple units across our power transmission and new & renewable energy businesses- including the state-of-the-art GH2 Electrolyser Factory. This site will also feature one of the largest and most advanced IRS manufacturing facilities globally, setting new benchmarks in industrial excellence.

This is more than an infrastructure investment- it's a bold declaration of Advait's vision. It places us at the vanguard of India's clean energy transition, significantly expanding our in-house capabilities while reaffirming our commitment to innovation, sustainability, and long-term value creation.

In FY26, our collective focus will be on delivering this landmark facility, designed to set new benchmarks for the industry. It will strengthen our operational excellence, accelerate our clean energy ambitions, and ensure that Advait continues to lead with purpose and performance.

Warm regards,
VATSAL KUNDALIA
Head - Operations, CP&P, New Businesses

Management, Discussion & Analysis

Economic Overview

Global Economy: In 2024, the global economy demonstrated cautious resilience amid ongoing geopolitical tensions, elevated interest rates and persistent inflationary pressures. While growth remained uneven across regions, emerging markets demonstrated relative strength driven by improved domestic demand and robust trade activity. Advanced economies faced moderate slowdowns as central banks maintained tight monetary policies to anchor inflation. Despite these challenges, global supply chains continued to stabilise, and energy markets showed signs of normalisation, supporting a gradual recovery in key sectors.

Indian Economy: FY25 marked another significant chapter in India's economic narrative, defined by robust domestic demand, strategic policy interventions and a steadfast commitment to long-term growth. Despite a complex global landscape characterised by geopolitical shifts and evolving trade dynamics, the Indian economy demonstrated remarkable resilience. It continued its upward trajectory, cementing its position as a leading global growth engine. According to the National Statistics Office (NSO), India's real Gross Domestic Product (GDP) is expected to grow by 6.3% in 2025. The primary driver of this expansion was a resurgence in private final consumption expenditure, fuelled by a noticeable pick-up in rural demand. This internal consumption story, coupled with continued investment activity, particularly in infrastructure, formed the bedrock of the year's economic performance.

The services sector emerged as the primary engine, expanding by 7.2%, driven by robust performance in information technology, finance, and the hospitality sector. The industrial sector maintained a steady growth of 6.2%, supported by construction and utilities, while agriculture grew at 3.8%, bolstered by record Kharif production.

India's net direct tax collections reached ₹21.26 lakh crore, a 13.13% increase compared to the previous year. This included ₹9.87 lakh crore from corporate tax, ₹11.88 lakh crore from non-corporate taxes (with personal income tax). The Goods & Services Tax (GST) regime continued to mature, contributing significantly to indirect tax revenues and reflecting the formalisation and expansion of the Indian economy.

Managing inflation remained a key focus throughout FY25. Retail headline inflation showed a welcome moderation, easing to 4.6% for the full and further declining to a six-year low of 3.16% in April 2025. This significant easing was largely attributable to cooling food prices, particularly vegetables and pulses, which had exerted upward pressure earlier in the year. In response to the evolving inflation trajectory and to support economic growth, the central bank implemented strategic repo rate cuts, bringing the rate down to 6.0% by April 2025.

Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) inflows experienced a healthy rebound, increasing by nearly 18% year-over-year in the first eight months of the fiscal year. This reflects continued global investor confidence in India's growth story and its potential as a hub for manufacturing and innovation.

Looking ahead, the foundations laid in FY 2025 position India for continued strong growth. The IMF predicts a 6.3% GDP growth in 2026, maintaining a solid lead over global and regional peers. The focus on domestic demand, infrastructure development, and a conducive policy environment is expected to sustain the momentum. The nation's demographic dividend and ongoing digital transformation present significant opportunities for innovation and inclusive growth in the years to come. India remains committed to its trajectory towards becoming a developed economy, leveraging its inherent strengths and adapting to the evolving global economic landscape.

The Indian economy's structural emphasis on infrastructure-led growth and energy transition is highly aligned with the Company's business roadmap. The ₹800 crore unexecuted order book- 66% of which belongs to the Power Transmission vertical- positions the Company as a direct beneficiary of public sector capex and transmission grid upgrades. Additionally, with India's energy transition strategy targeting 500 GW of non-fossil fuel capacity and large-scale transmission reforms, the Company's capabilities in ERS, OPGW, HTLS, and zero-shutdown live-line projects directly address national priorities of grid reliability, speed of deployment, and efficiency.

Industry Overview

India's energy sector is poised at a critical juncture, with transformational shifts underway to align with national growth aspirations, environmental imperatives, and technological progress. Significant capital inflows, large-scale policy interventions, and a strategic pivot towards decarbonisation and energy security characterise the sector.

POWER TRANSMISSION SERVICES (PTS)

India possesses the third-largest power transmission network globally, comprising over 817,000 Circuit KM (220 kV & above) of transmission lines and more than 13.5 lakh MVA of transformation capacity. As the country advances its renewable energy agenda and electrification efforts, the demand for robust, flexible, and smart grid infrastructure continues to intensify.

The National Electricity Plan (2022-2032) projects the addition of approximately 27,000 ckm of transmission lines and 75,000 MVA of substation capacity annually, particularly to integrate the targeted 500 GW of non-fossil fuel-based capacity by 2030. This would necessitate an estimated investment exceeding ₹2.44 lakh crore in transmission infrastructure alone.

The power transmission sector serves as a critical link between power generation and consumption, playing a vital role in delivering electricity from generating stations to distribution networks and, ultimately, to end consumers. India's geographical diversity and uneven distribution of energy resources such as coal, hydro, and renewables underscore the strategic importance of a robust and expansive transmission network.

As of April 30, 2025, India's transmission network comprises approximately 817,000 CKM (220 kV & above) of transmission lines and 13,50,953 MVA of transformation capacity. Notably, the inter-regional transmission capacity has surged by a remarkable 230%, reaching 1,18,740 MW since 2014. This growth has been instrumental in enhancing grid stability and ensuring seamless power flow across regions.

Coal reserves are predominantly concentrated in the central and eastern regions of the country. At the same time, hydro energy resources are primarily located in the Himalayan range, spanning the northern and north-eastern states. In response to these spatial disparities, the transmission infrastructure has witnessed significant expansion over the years to facilitate the efficient evacuation of power from resource-rich areas to high-demand load centres via both intra-state and inter-state transmission systems.

Despite these advancements, FY25 presented certain challenges. According to the latest data from the Central Electricity Authority (CEA), only 8,830 ckm of new transmission lines were added during FY25, substantially below the planned target of 15,253 ckm and marking the lowest annual addition since FY15. A significant portion of this (22% or 1,950 ckm) was commissioned in March 2025 alone, highlighting a year-end push to meet targets.

Industry stakeholders attribute the shortfall largely to Right of Way (RoW) constraints, with inadequate compensation to landowners emerging as a key bottleneck. Addressing this issue, the Union Ministry of Power revised land compensation norms in June 2024, a policy move expected to alleviate RoW challenges and expedite future transmission projects. Despite these headwinds, the sector is projected to exhibit a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of approximately 7.5% through 2030, supported by substantial public investments and Public-Private Partnership (PPP) frameworks.

Groundbreaking initiatives, such as universal electrification, enhanced rural power availability, and the adoption of cutting-edge technologies, have firmly set India on the path to becoming a global energy leader.

These efforts, coupled with continued infrastructure development and a focus on energy conservation and consumer empowerment, are geared towards ensuring reliable, affordable, and clean energy for all. The strategic adjustments to land compensation rates are a positive indicator for accelerated transmission infrastructure development in the coming years.

NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY

India's renewable energy domain stands as a cornerstone of the nation's energy transition strategy. As of March 2025, the country has achieved an installed renewable capacity of 220 GW, comprising 105 GW of solar energy and 50 GW of wind power. In alignment with its COP26 commitments, India has pledged to attain 500 GW of non-fossil capacity by 2030 and net-zero emissions by 2070.

Key growth catalysts include:

- The National Green Hydrogen Mission, with a ₹19,744 crore outlay and an annual production target of 5 million metric tonnes of green hydrogen by 2030
- Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) schemes promote domestic manufacturing of solar PV modules and electrolysers
- Waiver of interstate transmission charges for renewable projects commissioned by March 2026
- Large-scale tenders floated by SECI, GUVNL, and NTPC for solar, wind, and hybrid energy projects exceeding 40-50 GW per annum

There is a pressing need for decarbonisation because human activities, primarily the burning of fossil fuels, are releasing vast amounts of carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases into the atmosphere, contributing to global warming and exacerbating climate change impacts, including extreme weather events, rising sea levels, and ecosystem disruption.

India has emerged as a global leader in the transition to new and renewable energy, demonstrating ambitious targets and significant progress. Driven by a rapidly growing economy and a commitment to address climate change, the nation has set a formidable goal of achieving 500 GW of non-fossil fuel-based energy capacity by 2030, alongside a net-zero emissions target by 2070. Strong government policies and initiatives back this commitment.

As of March 31, 2025, India's total installed renewable energy capacity reached a remarkable 220.10 GW, a significant leap from previous years. Solar energy has been the primary driver of this growth, exceeding 105 GW, while wind power has also crossed the 50 GW milestone. The country is not only adding new capacity at a record pace but also has a substantial pipeline of projects under implementation and tendered. Critical impediments persist, including land acquisition hurdles, evacuation bottlenecks, regulatory heterogeneity across states, dependency on imported modules and minerals and a dearth of skilled personnel in emerging domains such as hydrogen and storage. With its abundant solar potential (over 5,000 TWh/year), well-articulated policy frameworks, and accelerating private and foreign investment inflows, India is positioned to emerge as a global leader in the clean energy domain, alongside nations such as China and the United States. The sector is projected to grow at a CAGR of 12-14%, led by grid-scale solar, battery storage, and green hydrogen initiatives. India's goal of producing

5 MMT of green hydrogen annually by 2030 under the National Green Hydrogen Mission has unlocked a ₹70,000 crore opportunity in electrolyzers and allied technologies. This initiative will not only significantly reduce India's reliance on fossil fuel imports and cut CO₂ emissions but also foster the domestic manufacturing of electrolyzers, create jobs, and attract substantial investments, ultimately bolstering India's energy security and driving decarbonisation across hard-to-abate sectors such as steel, refining, and heavy transport.

OPPORTUNITIES IN NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY

Climate Change Mitigation:

Renewable energy sources, such as solar, wind, hydro, geothermal, and biomass, produce little to no greenhouse gas emissions, directly addressing the urgent need to combat climate change and its associated environmental impacts.

Energy Security & Independence:

By diversifying energy sources and reducing reliance on volatile fossil fuel markets, countries can enhance their energy security and reduce geopolitical risks associated with imported energy.

Economic Growth & Job Creation:

The renewable energy sector is a rapidly expanding industry, creating numerous job opportunities in manufacturing, installation, operation, maintenance, research and development. This includes roles for engineers, technicians, project managers, consultants and more.

Technological Advancements & Cost Reduction:

Continuous innovation in renewable energy technologies is leading to increased efficiency and significant cost reductions, making them increasingly competitive with traditional energy sources. This includes advancements in solar PV, wind turbine design and energy storage solutions.

Decentralised Energy Systems:

Renewables can facilitate the development of decentralised energy systems, offering greater energy access and resilience, particularly in remote or underserved areas. This can reduce transmission losses and enhance grid stability.

Investment Opportunities: The sector attracts significant investment from both the public and private sectors, with green bonds and climate funds providing capital for projects. Governments are also offering incentives and supportive policies to encourage further investment.

Innovation in Ancillary Technologies:

The growth of renewables drives innovation in related fields such as advanced Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS), smart grids and Electric Vehicle (EV) technologies.

CHALLENGES IN NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY

In 2025, India's renewable energy sector faces significant challenges. Dense populations and agricultural competition hinder land acquisition for solar and wind projects, delaying the addition of capacity toward the 500 GW target by 2030. Inadequate grid infrastructure struggles to integrate intermittent renewable energy, risking instability. Financially distressed discoms, with a large amount of debt, delay power purchase agreements, stalling many large projects. A heavy reliance on imported minerals, such as lithium, increases costs and supply chain risks. Inconsistent policies and complex tenders led to undersubscribed bids. Also, high financing costs deter investment. A shortage of skilled workers slows green hydrogen and storage projects, hampering innovation and scalability.

GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES IN NEW & RENEWABLE ENERGY

PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana:

Launched in February 2024, it aims to install rooftop solar panels in 100 million households by 2027, with 1.28 crore registrations and 14 lakh applications by July 2024. The budget allocation of ₹19,100 crore supports subsidies and implementation.

National Green Hydrogen Mission:

Approved in January 2023 with a ₹19,744 crore outlay (FY2023-30), it allocated $5.6 million per green hydrogen valley project in FY 2025 to promote production and export, targeting 5 million metric tons by 2030.

Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme:

Tranche II allocated 39,600 MW for solar PV module manufacturing, with an investment of ₹19,500 crore, aiming to add 7,400 MW by October 2024 and 16,800 MW by April 2025, thereby creating 101,487 jobs.

Solar Park Scheme: Sanctioned 50 solar parks across 12 states with a cumulative capacity of ~38 GW by 2025-26, with SECI awarding contracts for 47 parks (25 GW+).

Bioenergy & CBG Initiatives: The PM JI-VAN Yojana (amended 2024) supports advanced bioethanol projects with ₹908 crore, while SATAT targets 750 CBG projects by 2028-29, aiming to produce 1 lakh cubic meters of biogas in FY25.

Sovereign Green Bonds: Issued ₹20,000 crore in FY25 to finance renewable projects, following a successful ₹16,000 crore issuance in 2023, supporting grid-scale solar, wind and green hydrogen.

Waiver of Interstate Transmission Charges: Extended till March 2026 to reduce costs for renewable energy projects, supporting grid integration and 50 GW annual capacity auctions.

Explanation to Section 185(2) of the Act clarifies the expression "any person in whom any of the Directors of the Company is interested" includes any private Company of which any such Director is a Director or member and since Mr. Shalin Sheth is Director in both the companies, Advait Greenergy Private Limited, being a private Company, is covered under the expression "any person in whom any of the Directors of the Company is interested" due to common Directorship. ITEM NO. 7 & 8: To increase the borrowing power of the Company & to create charge/security on the Company's assets with respect to borrowing

Considering the Company's future growth plans and possible requirement of additional funds for its operations, and modernization, the borrowings, if and when required, may need to be secured by mortgage or charge on all or any of the movable or immovable or any other tangible and intangible assets / properties of the Company (both present & future), in favour of any lender(s) including the financial institutions / banks / debenture trustees etc. in such form, manner and ranking as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time, in consultation with the lender(s). However, to meet the additional working capital and long term funding requirements as also to provide for the issue of any debt, debt related instruments in the Indian and / or international market, it is necessary to increase the present borrowing limit of the Company, so the increase in borrowing would necessitate a reworking of the borrowing limits by authorizing the Board of Directors to borrow money not exceeding ₹ 1000 Cr. (Rupees One Thousand Crore) (in place of the existing limit of ₹ 500 crores) over and above the aggregate of the paid-up capital of the Company, securities premium and its free reserves, but with a matching authorization for the creation of charge and/or mortgage over the movable/ or immovable properties of the Company as security. These upward revisions in the borrowing limits and creation of securities by way of charge and/or mortgage would require your approval under the provisions of Section 180(1)(c) and 180(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 2013 respectively.

None of the Directors/ Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) of the Company/ their relatives is, in any way, concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the resolution set out in item no. 7 & 8 of the Notice. The Board recommends the Resolution at Item No. 7 & 8 of this Notice for approval of the Members by way of Special Resolution.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

TO THE MEMBERS OF
ADVAIT ENERGY TRANSITIONS LIMITED
(FORMALLY KNOWN AS ADVAIT INFRATECH LIMITED)

Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying Standalone Financial Statements of ADVAIT ENERGY TRANSITIONS LIMITED (FORMALLY KNOWN AS ADVAIT INFRATECH LIMITED) ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the Standalone Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, (hereinafter referred to as "Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, the profit and total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act (hereinafter referred to as "SAs"). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (hereinafter referred to as "ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made there under, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key Audit Matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Revenue recognition as per Ind AS 115	Our audit procedures included the following:
Refer to Note-1(7)(B) (Significant Accounting Policies) and Note-28 (Revenue from operations) of the financial statements.	We evaluated the design and tested operating effectiveness of the relevant controls with respect to revenue recognition including those relating to cut off at year end;
The Company's revenue is principally derived from manufacturing and supply of power transmission products. In accordance with Ind AS 115, revenue from sale of goods/ Supply of Service is recognized when control of the products being sold is transferred to the customer and when there are no unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in the contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on terms of contract with the customer. Revenue is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable after deduction of any trade / volume discounts and taxes or duties collected.	We assessed the appropriateness of the revenue recognition accounting policies in line with Ind AS 115 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers"; We performed substantive testing of revenue transactions, recorded during the year by testing the underlying documents which included goods dispatch notes, shipping documents and customer acknowledgments, as applicable;
We identified revenue recognition as a key audit matter since revenue is significant to the financial statements and is required to be recognized as per the requirements of applicable accounting framework.	We tested manual journal entries posted to revenue to identify unusual items; We tested, on a sample basis, specific revenue transactions recorded before and after the financial year end date including examination of credit notes issued after the year end to determine whether the revenue has been recognized in the appropriate financial period. Based on the above stated procedures, no significant exceptions were noted in revenue recognition.

Other Information

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information; we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India (Indian GAAPs), including the Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.

This responsibility also includes the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provision of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting the frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of internal financial control, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances; Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure “B” to the Independent Auditor’s Report

(Referred to in paragraph 2 (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirement of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

We have audited the Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting of ADVAIT ENERGY TRANSITIONS LIMITED (FORMALLY KNOWN AS ADVAIT INFRATECH LIMITED) as on 31st March, 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A Company’s Internal Financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Note 1 – Significant Accounting Policies1. General information

Advait Energy Transition Limited (Formerly known as Advait Infratech Limited) (“the Company”), founded by Shri. Shalin Rahul Sheth in the year 2009 is one among the best-established companies in India, operating in manufacturing and supply of power transmission products such as Stringing Tools, OPGW (Optical Fibre Ground Wire), OFC cables, ACS (Aluminium Clad Steel Wire), ERS (Emergency Restoration System), RDSS, Re-conductoring HTLS and OPGW joint boxes. The Company is incorporated in India. The registered office of the Company is situated at KIFS Corporate House, 1st Floor, Iscon Ambli Road, Beside Hotel Planet Landmark, Near Ashok Vatika, Ambli, Ahmedabad - 380058. These financial statements are approved for issue by the Board of Directors on May 12, 2025.

2. Statement of compliance

- The Standalone financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended from time to time).

3. Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is the Company's functional currency. All amounts have been rounded off to two decimal places to the nearest lakh, unless otherwise indicated.

4. Basis of preparation of financial statements

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Company is required to prepare its Financial Statements as per the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended by the Companies (Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016 with effect from 1st April, 2016. Accordingly, the Company has prepared these Financial Statements which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year ended 31st March, 2025, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (together hereinafter referred to as “Financial Statements”).

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis using historical cost convention basis except for the following items:

- certain financial assets and liabilities (including mutual fund investments and derivatives) that are measured at fair value;
- defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value; and
- share-based payments.

5. Key estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IndAS requires use of estimates and assumptions, which might have an effect on their recognition and measurement in the (i) balance sheet and (ii) statement of profit and loss. The actual amounts may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and assumptions are required in particular for:

- Determination of the estimated useful lives of tangible assets and intangible assets

Useful lives of assets are based on the life prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. In cases, where the useful lives are different from that prescribed in Schedule II, they are based on technical advice, taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating conditions of the asset, past history of replacement, anticipated technological changes, manufacturer's warranties and maintenance support.

- Recognition and measurement of defined benefit obligations

The obligation arising from defined benefit plan is determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions. Key actuarial assumptions include discount rate, trends in salary escalation, actuarial rates and life expectancy. The discount rate is determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds. The period to maturity of the underlying bonds corresponds to the probable maturity of the post-employment benefit obligations.

- Recognition of deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, and unutilized business loss and unabsorbed depreciation and tax credits. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses, unabsorbed depreciation and unused tax credits could be utilized.

- Recognition and measurement of other provisions

The recognition and measurement of other provisions are based on the assessment of the probability of an outflow of resources, and on past experience and circumstances known at the balance sheet date. The actual outflow of resources at a future date may therefore vary from the amount included in other provisions.

- Fair value of financial instruments

Investments in mutual funds and equity instrument are carried at fair value.

6. Measurement of fair values

The Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for financial instruments. The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The management regularly reviews significant observable inputs and valuation adjustments.

7. Significant accounting policies followed by the CompanyA. Foreign currency*i. Foreign currency transactions

In accordance with IndAS 21, on accounting for the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates, Transaction in foreign currencies are recognised at the prevailing exchange rates on the transaction date. Realized gains and losses on settlement of foreign currency transactions are recognised in the profit and loss account, foreign currency assets and liabilities at the year-end are translated at the year-end exchange rates, and the resultant exchange difference is recognised in the profit and loss account.

Foreign currency differences are generally recognised in profit or loss. Any income or expense on account of exchange difference either on settlement or on translation is recognised in the Statement of profit and loss in the year in which they arise.

The Company has adopted Appendix B to IndAS 21, Foreign Currency transactions and advance considerations notified in the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2018. Accordingly, the exchange rate for translation of foreign currency transaction; in cases when Company receives or pays advance consideration is earlier of:-

- the date of initial recognition of non-monetary prepayment asset or deferred income liability or
- the date that the related item is recognized in the financial statements.

If the transaction is recognized in stages; then a transaction date will be established for each stage.

B. Revenue Recognitioni) Revenue from contract with customers for sale of goods and provision of services

The Company recognizes revenue from contracts with the customers based on five step model defined in IndAS 115. The Company satisfies a performance obligation and recognizes revenue over time, if any of the conditions given in IndAS 115 are satisfied; else revenue is recognized at point in time at which the performance obligation is satisfied. When the Company satisfies a performance obligation by delivering the promised goods or services it creates a contract-based asset on the amount of consideration earned by the performance. Where the amount of consideration received from a customer exceeds the amount of revenue recognized, this gives rise to a contract liability.

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates. Revenues are recognized to the extent it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue & costs, if applicable, can be measured reliably.

a. Performance Obligation

The Company derives its revenue from selling products and services in Power Transmission Stringing Tools, OPGW (Optical Fibre Ground Wire), OFC cables, ACS (Aluminium Clad Steel Wire), ERS (Emergency Restoration System), RDSS, HTLS Re-conductor and OPGW joint boxes etc.

The Company is required to assess each of its contracts with customers to determine whether performance obligation is satisfied over time or at a point in time in order to determine the appropriate method for recognizing of revenue. The Company recognizes the revenue over time only if it satisfies the criteria given in IndAS 115. Where the criteria as per IndAS 115 are not met, revenue is recognized at a point in time.

In cases where the Company determines that performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time, revenue is recognized when the control over the goods is transferred to the customer or benefits of the services being provided is received by the customer. The Company considers that the customer has obtained the control of promised goods or services; when the goods have been dispatched/delivered to the destination as per terms of the contract or services has been provided to the customer as per agreed terms and the Company has unconditional right to consideration.

In cases where the Company determines that performance obligation is satisfied over time, then revenue is recognised when the outcome of a transaction can be estimated reliably by reference to the stage of completion of the transaction (Input Method). The outcome of a transaction can be estimated reliably when all the following conditions are satisfied:

1. The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
2. It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company;
3. The stage of completion of the transaction at the end of the reporting period can be measured reliably; and
4. The costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

Stage of completion is determined by the proportion of actual costs incurred to-date, to the estimated total costs of the transaction.

b. Transaction Price

The Company is required to determine the transaction price in respect of each of its contracts with customers.

Contract with customers for sale of goods or services are either on a fixed price or on variable price basis.

For allocating the transaction price, the Company measures the revenue in respect of each performance obligation of contract at its relative standalone selling price. The price that is regularly charged for an item when sold separately is the best evidence of its standalone selling price. In making judgment about the standalone selling price, the Company also assesses the impact of any variable consideration in the contract, due to discounts or penalties, the existence of any significant financing component and any non-cash consideration in the contract.

- iii) Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and effective interest rate applicable.
- iv) Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive the payment is established.

C. Employee benefits

i. Short term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

ii. Defined contribution plans

• Provident Fund Scheme

The Company makes specified monthly contributions towards employee provident fund directly to the Government under the Employees Provident Fund Act, 1952.

iii. Defined benefit plans

The following post – employment benefit plans are covered under the defined benefit plans:

• Gratuity Fund

The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plans is calculated separately for each plan by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods, discounting that amount and deducting the fair value of any plan assets.

The calculation of defined benefit obligations is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the Projected Unit Credit Method. When the calculation results in a potential asset for the Company, the recognised asset is limited to the present value of economic benefits available in the form of any future refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan. To calculate the present value of economic benefits, consideration is given to any applicable minimum funding requirements.

Re-measurement of the net defined benefit/liability, which comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding interest) and the effect of the asset ceiling, if any (excluding interest), are recognised immediately in OCI. Net interest expense/(income) on the net defined liability/(assets) is computed by applying the discount rate, used to measure the net defined liability/(asset), to the net defined liability/(asset) at the start of the financial year after taking into account any changes as a result of contribution and benefit payments during the year. Net interest expense and other expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in profit or loss. When the benefits of a plan are changed or when a plan is curtailed, the resulting change in benefit that relates to past service or the gain or loss on curtailment is recognised immediately in profit or loss. The Company recognises gains and losses on the settlement of a defined benefit plan when the settlement occurs.

D. Finance income and finance costs

The Company's finance income and finance costs include:

- interest income;
- interest expense;
- the net gain or loss on financial assets at FVTPL

- exchange differences arising from monetary assets and liabilities

Interest income or expense is recognised using the effective interest rate method.

E. Grants/ Subsidies

Government grants are recognised where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with.

Where the grant relates to an asset, the cost of the asset is shown at gross value and grant thereon is treated as capital grant. The capital grant will be recognised as income in the statement of profit and loss over the period and in proportion in which depreciation is charged.

Revenue grants are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the same period as the related cost, which they are intended to compensate, are accounted for.

F. Borrowing cost

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. The Company considers a period of twelve months or more as a substantial period of time. Interest income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Finance expenses are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalised in accordance with the Company's policy on borrowing costs.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they are incurred.

G. Taxation

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

i) Current tax

The Company's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company, its branches and jointly controlled operations operate and generate taxable income.

Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations is subject to interpretations. It establishes provisions, where appropriate, on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

ii) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with interests in jointly controlled operations except where it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets / liabilities in respect of temporary differences which originate and reverse during the tax holiday period are not recognised. Deferred tax assets / liabilities in respect of temporary differences that originate during the tax holiday period but reverse after the tax holiday period are recognised.

H. Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Inventory of scrap is valued at estimated realizable value. The cost of inventories is determined using FIFO method. Cost includes direct materials, labour, other direct cost and manufacturing overheads. Inventories of finished goods also includes applicable taxes.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

I. Property, plant and equipment

i) Recognition and measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises:

- its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates.
- any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.
- the initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, the obligation for which an entity incurs either when the item is acquired or as a consequence of having used the item during a particular period for purposes other than to produce inventories during that period.

Income and expenses related to the incidental operations, not necessary to bring the item to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management, are recognised in profit or loss.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted and depreciated for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment

Any gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in statement of profit and loss.

ii) Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is provided, pro rata to the period of use, based on useful lives specified in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in the case where the estimated useful life based on management experience and technical evaluation differs.

Depreciation is charged on the Straight-Line method (SLM) in the Company. Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted, if appropriate.

Capital expenditure in respect of which ownership does not vest with the Company is amortized over a period of five years.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their expected useful lives on the same basis as owned assets. However, when there is no reasonable certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives.

Leasehold land is amortised over the period of lease on a straight-line basis.

Short term leases and leases of low value assets

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less.

The estimated useful life of these Property, Plant and Equipment is mentioned below:

Particulars	Estimated Useful life (in year)
Building	3-60
Plant and Equipment / Office Equipment	5-25
Erection tools	3-5
Furniture and Fixture	10
Vehicles	6-8
Computers	3-6

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

iv) Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress comprises of assets in the course of construction for production or/and supply of goods or services or administrative purposes, or for purposes not yet determined, are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. At the point when an asset is operating at management's intended use, the cost of construction is transferred to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment. Costs associated with the commissioning of an asset are capitalised where the asset is available for use and commissioning has been completed.

J. Share-based payments:

- Employees of the Company receives remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments (equity-settled transactions).
- The cost of equity-settled transactions is determined by the fair value at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model.
- That cost is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in share-based payment (SBP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/ or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Company's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest.
- When the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, the minimum expense recognised is the expense had the terms not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. An additional expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification. Where an award is cancelled by the entity or by the counterparty, any remaining element of the fair value of the award is expensed immediately through profit or loss.
- The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

K. Leases

The Company has adopted IndAS 116, effective from annual reporting period beginning April 1, 2019 and applied the standard to its existing leases, with the modified retrospective method. This has resulted into recognition of Right of use assets at an amount equal to Lease liability on date of initial application.

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Company as a lessee

The Company accounts for each lease component within the contract as a lease separately from non-lease components of the contract and allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

The Company recognises right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term at the lease commencement date. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception is comprising of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any re-measurement of the lease liability. The right-of-use assets are depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. The estimated useful lives of right-of-use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

The Company measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the Company's general borrowing rate. For leases with reasonably similar characteristics, the Company, on a lease by lease basis, may adopt either the incremental borrowing rate specific to the lease or the incremental borrowing rate for the portfolio as a whole. The lease payments include fixed payments, variable lease payments, residual value guarantees, exercise price of a purchase option where the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease. The lease liability is subsequently re-measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made and re-measuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications or to reflect revised in-substance fixed lease payments. The Company recognises the amount of the re-measurement of lease liability due to modification as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset and statement of profit and loss depending upon the nature of modification. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Company recognises any remaining amount of the re-measurement in statement of profit and loss.

The Company has elected not to apply the requirements of IndAS 116 Leases to;

- Short-term leases of all assets that have a lease term of 12 months or less, and
- Leases for which the underlying asset is of low value as agreed by the management.

The lease payments associated with above 2 types of leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

L. Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

a) Financial Assets

Financial assets comprises of investments in equity instruments, cash and cash equivalents, loans and other financial assets.

Initial Recognition:

All financial assets are recognized initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through Profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of financial assets. Purchase or sales of financial assets that requires delivery of assets within a period of time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place are recognized on the trade date, i.e. the date the Company committed to purchase or sell the assets.

Subsequent Measurement:

- Financial assets measured at amortized Cost:*
Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost if these financial assets are held within a business whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and where contractual terms of financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- Financial assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI):*
Financial Assets that are held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collective contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding are subsequently measure at FVTOCI are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income.

Equity instruments held for trading are classified as at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL). For other equity instruments the Company classifieds the same as FVTOCI. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. Fair Value changes on equity instruments at FVTOCI, excluding dividends are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI)

iii). Fair Value through Profit or Loss (FVTPL):

Financial Assets are measured at FVTPL if does not meet the criteria for classification as measured at amortized cost or at FVTOCI. All fair changes are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

De-recognition of Financial Assets:

Financial Assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to cash flows from the financial assets expire or the financial assets is transferred, and he transfer qualifies for de-recognition. On de-recognition of the financial assets in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount (measured at the date of de-recognition) and the consideration received (including any new assets obtained less any new liabilities assumed) shall be recognized in the statement of Profit and Loss.

b) Financial Liabilities

The Company's financial liabilities include following:

- o Borrowing from Banks
- o Borrowing from Others
- o Trade Payables
- o Other Financial Liabilities

Classification

The Company's financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost.

Initial Recognition and Measurement

Financial liabilities are initially recognized at fair value plus any transaction costs, (if any) which are attributable to acquisition of the financial liabilities.

Subsequent Measurement:

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

The Effective Interest Rate Method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expenses over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability.

De-recognition of Financial Liabilities:

Financial liabilities shall be derecognized when, and only when it is extinguished i.e. when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

c) Offsetting of Financial assets and Financial Liabilities:

Financial assets and Financial Liabilities are offset and the net amount is presented in Balance Sheet when, and only when, the Company has legal right to offset the recognized amounts and intends either to settle on the net basis or to realize the assets and liabilities simultaneously.

d) Reclassification of Financial Instruments:

The Company determines classification of financial assets and liabilities on initial recognition. After initial recognition, no reclassification is made for financial assets which are categorized as equity instruments at FVTOCI, and financial assets or liabilities that are specifically designated as FVTPL. For financial assets which are debt instruments, a reclassification is made only if there is a change in business model for managing those assets. Changes to the business model are expected to be very infrequent. The management determines the change in a business model as a results of external of internal changes which are significant to the Company's Operations. A Change in business occurs when the Company either befin or ceases to perform an activity that is significant to its operations. IF the Company reclassifies financial assets, it applies the reclassification prospectively effective from the reclassification date which is the first day of the immediately next reporting period following the change in business model. The Company does not restate any previously recognized gains, losses (including impairment gains or losses) or interest.

M. Fair Value Measurement

A number of Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the determination of fair value, for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities.

Fair value is the price that would be received on sell of an assets or plaid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the assets or liabilities or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the assets or liability. The principal market or the most advantageous market must be accessible to the Company.

The fair value of an asset or liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the assets or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the assets in its highest the best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the assets in its highest and best use.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Ind As Financial Statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole. The fair value hierarchy is described as below;

- Level 1 - unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.
- Level 2 - Input other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liabilities, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the Ind As Financial Statements at fair value on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization at the end of each reporting period.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risk of the asset or liability and the level of fair value hierarchy.

Fair values have been determined for measurement and / or disclosure purposes based on the following methods. When applicable, further information about the assumptions made in determining fair values is disclosed in the notes specific to that assets or liability.

a) Investment in equity and debt securities

The fair value is determined by reference to their quoted price at the reporting date. In the absence of quoted price, the value of the financial asset is measured using valuation techniques.

d) Trade and other receivables

The fair value of trade and other receivables is estimated as the present value of future cash flows, discounted at the market rate of interest at the reporting date. However, in respect of such financial instruments, fair value generally approximates the carrying amount due to short term nature of such assets.

c) Non derivative financial liabilities

Fair value, which is determined for disclosure purposes, is calculated based on the present value of future principal and interest cash flows, discounted at the market rate of interest at the reporting date. For finance leases, the market rate of interest is determined by reference to similar lease agreements.

N. Provision, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

Contingent liability

A possible obligation that arises from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the enterprise are disclosed as contingent liability and not provided for. Such liability is not disclosed if the possibility of outflow of resources is remote.

Contingent assets

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity.

Contingent assets are not recognised but disclosed only

O. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management.

P. Earnings per share

Basic Earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit for the period attributable to the equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit for the period attributable to the equity shareholders and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Q. Cash flows

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flow. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on available information.

- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period; or

40 DISCLOSURES PURSUANT TO IND AS 19 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

(a) Define contribution plans:

The Company has certain defined contribution plans in which both employee and employer contribute monthly, at the rate of 12% of basic salary, as per regulations to provident fund set up as trust and to the respective regional provident fund commissioner.

The Company's contributions to provident fund, pension scheme and employee state insurance scheme are made to the relevant government authorities as per the prescribed rules and regulations. The Company's contributions to the above defined contribution plans are recognised as employee benefit expenses in the statement of profit and loss for the year in which they are due

The Company's contribution to provident, pension, superannuation funds and to employees state insurance scheme aggregating to ₹ 3.54 Lakhs (Previous year – ₹ 1.55 lakhs) has been recognised in the statement of profit and loss under the head employee benefits expense [Refer note 33]

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024
Contribution to provident fund, included under contribution to provident and other funds	3.54	1.84
Contribution to employee state insurance scheme, included under contribution to provident and other funds	0.05	-

(b) Defined benefits plans:

(i) Gratuity

The Company provides for gratuity for employees as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The amount of gratuity shall be payable to an employee on the termination of his employment after he has rendered continuous service for not less than five years, or on their superannuation or resignation. However, in case of death of an employee, the minimum period of five years shall not be required. The amount of gratuity payable on retirement is the employees last drawn basic salary per month computed proportionately for 15 days salary multiplied by the number of year's service completed.

(ii) Risk exposure to defined benefit plans

The plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as: Investment risk, Liquidity risk, Market risk and Legislative risk.

Actuarial risk:

It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons:

Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in Obligation at a rate that is higher than expected.

Variability in mortality rates: If actual mortality rates are higher than assumed mortality rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cash flow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate.

Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rates are higher than assumed withdrawal rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.

Investment risk:

For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be the fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter-valuation period.

Liquidity risk:

Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the Company there can be strain on the cash flows.

Market risk:

Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has a material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects the time.

The most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out at 31st March, 2025 by M/s Trueval Consulting. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	2024-25	2023-24

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligation as it is unlikely that the changes in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation liability recognized in the balance sheet.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

TO THE MEMBERS OF
ADVAIT ENERGY TRANSITIONS LIMITED
(FORMALLY KNOWN AS ADVAIT INFRATECH LIMITED)

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements of ADVAIT ENERGY TRANSITIONS LIMITED (FORMALLY KNOWN AS ADVAIT INFRATECH LIMITED) ("the Holding company") and its subsidiary (Holding Company and its subsidiary together referred to as "the Group", which comprise the consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, the consolidated Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, (hereinafter referred to as "Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, the consolidated profit and total comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and its consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act (hereinafter referred to as "SAs"). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (hereinafter referred to as "ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made there under, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As stated in the audit report of TG ADVAIT INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED (Joint venture)

The Company has identified a material error related to the import of goods aggregating to ₹103.45 lakhs (Invoice Value – CNY 880,450.47) pertaining to the financial year 2020–21. In accordance with Ind AS 8 – Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, this requires restatement of the comparative figures for prior periods presented in the financial statements. However, management has deferred the correction to a subsequent quarter, citing practical constraints and the time required for internal approvals during the reporting period. as a result, the financial statements for the current year and the comparative figures for the previous period are misstated, and the impact of this error on both periods has not been adjusted or adequately disclosed in these financial statements.

This has resulted in a known misstatement in both the current and comparative financial information of the joint venture. Since this joint venture has been included in the consolidated financial statements without correction or adequate disclosure, the consolidated financial statements are materially misstated to that extent.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SAs") specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Statement section of our report. We are independent of the Group, its associates and joint ventures, in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("the ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act, and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and that obtained by the other auditors and management in terms of their reports referred to in "Other Matter" paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Revenue recognition as per Ind AS 115	Our audit procedures included the following:
Refer to Note – 1(7)(B) (Significant Accounting Policies) and Note - 28 (Revenue from operations) of the financial statements.	We evaluated the design and tested operating effectiveness of the relevant controls with respect to revenue recognition including those relating to cut off at year end;
The Company's revenue is principally derived from manufacturing and supply of power transmission products.	We assessed the appropriateness of the revenue recognition accounting policies in line with Ind AS 115 "Revenue from Contracts with Customers";
In accordance with Ind AS 115, revenue from sale of goods is recognized when control of the products being sold is transferred to the customer and when there are no unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in the contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on terms of contract with the customer. Revenue is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable after deduction of any trade/volume discounts and taxes or duties collected.	We performed substantive testing of revenue transactions, recorded during the year by testing the underlying documents which included goods dispatch notes, shipping documents and customer acknowledgments, as applicable;
We identified revenue recognition as a key audit matter since revenue is significant to the financial statements and is required to be recognized as per the requirements of applicable accounting framework.	We tested manual journal entries posted to revenue to identify unusual items;
	We tested, on a sample basis, specific revenue transactions recorded before and after the financial year end date including examination of credit notes issued after the year end to determine whether the revenue has been recognized in the appropriate financial period.
	Based on the above stated procedures, no significant exceptions were noted in revenue recognition.

Other Information

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information; we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India (Indian GAAPs), including the Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.

This responsibility also includes the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provision of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting the frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of internal financial control, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances; Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure "A" to the Independent Auditor's Report

(Referred to in paragraph 1 (f) under "Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirement of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of ADVAIT ENERGY TRANSITIONS LIMITED (FORMALLY KNOWN AS ADVAIT INFRA TECH LIMITED) ("the Holding Company") and its subsidiary/joint venture/associate as of 31st March, 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India

3. Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is the Company's functional currency. All amounts have been rounded off to two decimal places to the nearest lakh, unless otherwise indicated.

4. Basis of preparation of financial statements

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Company is required to prepare its Financial Statements as per the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended by the Companies (Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016 with effect from 1st April, 2016. Accordingly, the Company has prepared these Financial Statements which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year ended 31st March, 2025, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (together hereinafter referred to as "Financial Statements").

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis using historical cost convention basis except for the following items:

- certain financial assets and liabilities (including mutual fund investments and derivatives) that are measured at fair value;

- defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value; and
- share-based payments.

5. Key estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IndAS requires use of estimates and assumptions, which might have an effect on their recognition and measurement in the (i) balance sheet and (ii) statement of profit and loss. The actual amounts may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and assumptions are required in particular for:Determination of the estimated useful lives of tangible assets and intangible assets

Useful lives of assets are based on the life prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. In cases, where the useful lives are different from that prescribed in Schedule II, they are based on technical advice, taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating conditions of the asset, past history of replacement, anticipated technological changes, manufacturer's warranties and maintenance support.

Recognition and measurement of defined benefit obligations

The obligation arising from defined benefit plan is determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions. Key actuarial assumptions include discount rate, trends in salary escalation, actuarial rates and life expectancy. The discount rate is determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds. The period to maturity of the underlying bonds corresponds to the probable maturity of the post-employment benefit obligations.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, and unutilized business loss and unabsorbed depreciation and tax credits. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses, unabsorbed depreciation and unused tax credits could be utilized.

Recognition and measurement of other provisions

The recognition and measurement of other provisions are based on the assessment of the probability of an outflow of resources, and on past experience and circumstances known at the balance sheet date. The actual outflow of resources at a future date may therefore vary from the amount included in other provisions.

Fair value of financial instruments

Investments in mutual funds and equity instrument are carried at fair value.

6. Measurement of fair values

The Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for financial instruments. The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The management regularly reviews significant observable inputs and valuation adjustments.

7. Significant accounting policies followed by the CompanyA. Foreign currency*i. Foreign currency transactions

In accordance with IndAS 21, on accounting for the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates, Transaction in foreign currencies are recognised at the prevailing exchange rates on the transaction date. Realized gains and losses on settlement of foreign currency transactions are recognised in the profit and loss account, foreign currency assets and liabilities at the year-end are translated at the year-end exchange rates, and the resultant exchange difference is recognised in the profit and loss account.

Foreign currency differences are generally recognised in profit or loss. Any income or expense on account of exchange difference either on settlement or on translation is recognised in the Statement of profit and loss in the year in which they arise.

The Company has adopted Appendix B to IndAS 21, Foreign Currency transactions and advance considerations notified in the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2018. Accordingly, the exchange rate for translation of foreign currency transaction; in cases when Company receives or pays advance consideration is earlier of:-

- the date of initial recognition of non-monetary prepayment asset or deferred income liability or
- the date that the related item is recognized in the financial statements.

If the transaction is recognized in stages; then a transaction date will be established for each stage.

B. Revenue Recognitioni) Revenue from contract with customers for sale of goods and provision of services

The Company recognizes revenue from contracts with the customers based on five step model defined in IndAS 115. The Company satisfies a performance obligation and recognizes revenue over time, if any of the conditions given in IndAS 115 are satisfied; else revenue is recognized at point in time at which the performance obligation is satisfied. When the Company satisfies a performance obligation by delivering the promised goods or services it creates a contract-based asset on the amount of consideration earned by the performance. Where the amount of consideration received from a customer exceeds the amount of revenue recognized, this gives rise to a contract liability.

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates. Revenues are recognized to the extent it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue & costs, if applicable, can be measured reliably.

a. Performance Obligation

The Company derives its revenue from selling products and services in Power Transmission Stringing Tools, OPGW (Optical Fibre Ground Wire), OFC cables, ACS (Aluminium Clad Steel Wire), ERS (Emergency Restoration System), RDSS, HTLS Re-conductor and OPGW joint boxes etc.

The Company is required to assess each of its contracts with customers to determine whether performance obligation is satisfied over time or at a point in time in order to determine the appropriate method for recognizing of revenue. The Company recognizes the revenue over time only if it satisfies the criteria given in IndAS 115. Where the criteria as per IndAS 115 are not met, revenue is recognized at a point in time.

In cases where the Company determines that performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time, revenue is recognized when the control over the goods is transferred to the customer or benefits of the services being provided is received by the customer. The Company considers that the customer has obtained the control of promised goods or services; when the goods have been dispatched/delivered to the destination as per terms of the contract or services has been provided to the customer as per agreed terms and the Company has unconditional right to consideration.

In cases where the Company determines that performance obligation is satisfied over time, then revenue is recognised when the outcome of a transaction can be estimated reliably by reference to the stage of completion of the transaction (Input Method). The outcome of a transaction can be estimated reliably when all the following conditions are satisfied:

1. The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
2. It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company;
3. The stage of completion of the transaction at the end of the reporting period can be measured reliably; and
4. The costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

Stage of completion is determined by the proportion of actual costs incurred to-date, to the estimated total costs of the transaction.

b. Transaction Price

The Company is required to determine the transaction price in respect of each of its contracts with customers.

Contract with customers for sale of goods or services are either on a fixed price or on variable price basis.

For allocating the transaction price, the Company measures the revenue in respect of each performance obligation of contract at its relative standalone selling price. The price that is regularly charged for an item when sold separately is the best evidence of its standalone selling price. In making judgment about the standalone selling price, the Company also assesses the impact of any variable consideration in the contract, due to discounts or penalties, the existence of any significant financing component and any non-cash consideration in the contract.

- iii) Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and effective interest rate applicable.
- iv) Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive the payment is established.

C. Employee benefits

i. Short term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

ii. Defined contribution plans

• Provident Fund Scheme

The Company makes specified monthly contributions towards employee provident fund directly to the Government under the Employees Provident Fund Act, 1952.

iii. Defined benefit plans

The following post – employment benefit plans are covered under the defined benefit plans:

• Gratuity Fund

The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plans is calculated separately for each plan by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods, discounting that amount and deducting the fair value of any plan assets.

The calculation of defined benefit obligations is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the Projected Unit Credit Method. When the calculation results in a potential asset for the Company, the recognised asset is limited to the present value of economic benefits available in the form of any future refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan. To calculate the present value of economic benefits, consideration is given to any applicable minimum funding requirements.

Re-measurement of the net defined benefit/liability, which comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding interest) and the effect of the asset ceiling, if any (excluding interest), are recognised immediately in OCI. Net interest expense/(income) on the net defined liability/(assets) is computed by applying the discount rate, used to measure the net defined liability/(asset), to the net defined liability/(asset) at the start of the financial year after taking into account any changes as a result of contribution and benefit payments during the year. Net interest expense and other expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in profit or loss. When the benefits of a plan are changed or when a plan is curtailed, the resulting change in benefit that relates to past service or the gain or loss on curtailment is recognised immediately in profit or loss. The Company recognises gains and losses on the settlement of a defined benefit plan when the settlement occurs.

D. Finance income and finance costs

The Company's finance income and finance costs include:

- interest income;

- interest expense;
- the net gain or loss on financial assets at FVTPL
- exchange differences arising from monetary assets and liabilities

Interest income or expense is recognised using the effective interest rate method.

E. Grants/ Subsidies

Government grants are recognised where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with.

Where the grant relates to an asset, the cost of the asset is shown at gross value and grant thereon is treated as capital grant. The capital grant will be recognised as income in the statement of profit and loss over the period and in proportion in which depreciation is charged.

Revenue grants are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the same period as the related cost, which they are intended to compensate, are accounted for.

F. Borrowing cost

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. The Company considers a period of twelve months or more as a substantial period of time. Interest income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Finance expenses are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalised in accordance with the Company's policy on borrowing costs.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they are incurred.

G. Taxation

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

i) Current tax

The Company's current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company, its branches and jointly controlled operations operate and generate taxable income.

Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations is subject to interpretations. It establishes provisions, where appropriate, on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

ii) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with interests in jointly controlled operations except where it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets / liabilities in respect of temporary differences which originate and reverse during the tax holiday period are not recognised. Deferred tax assets / liabilities in respect of temporary differences that originate during the tax holiday period but reverse after the tax holiday period are recognised.

H. Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Inventory of scrap is valued at estimated realizable value. The cost of inventories is determined using FIFO method. Cost includes direct materials, labour, other direct cost and manufacturing overheads. Inventories of finished goods also includes applicable taxes.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

I. Property, plant and equipment

i) Recognition and measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises:

- its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates.
- any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.
- the initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, the obligation for which an entity incurs either when the item is acquired or as a consequence of having used the item during a particular period for purposes other than to produce inventories during that period.

Income and expenses related to the incidental operations, not necessary to bring the item to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management, are recognised in profit or loss.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted and depreciated for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment

Any gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in statement of profit and loss.

ii) Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits

associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is provided, pro rata to the period of use, based on useful lives specified in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in the case where the estimated useful life based on management experience and technical evaluation differs.

Depreciation is charged on the Straight-Line method (SLM) in the Company. Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted, if appropriate.

Capital expenditure in respect of which ownership does not vest with the Company is amortized over a period of five years.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their expected useful lives on the same basis as owned assets. However, when there is no reasonable certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives.

Depreciation on addition to fixed assets during the year is provided on pro-rata basis.

Short term leases and leases of low value assets

Payments associated with short-term leases of equipment, and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less.

The estimated useful life of these Property, Plant and Equipment is mentioned below:

Particulars	Estimated Useful life (in year)
Building	3-60
Plant and Equipment / Office Equipment	5-25
Erection tools	3-5
Furniture and Fixture	10
Vehicles	6-8
Computers	3-6

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of assets exceeds its recoverable value. An impairment loss is charged to the profit and loss account in the year in which an asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in prior accounting periods is reversed if there has been a change in the estimate of recoverable amount.

iv) Capital work-in-progress

Capital work-in-progress comprises of assets in the course of construction for production or/and supply of goods or services or administrative purposes, or for purposes not yet determined, are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. At the point when an asset is operating at management's intended use, the cost of construction is transferred to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment. Costs associated with the commissioning of an asset are capitalised where the asset is available for use and commissioning has been completed.

J. Share-based payments:

- Employees of the Company receives remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments (equity-settled transactions).
- The cost of equity-settled transactions is determined by the fair value at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model.
- That cost is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in share-based payment (SBP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/ or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Company's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest.
- When the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, the minimum expense recognised is the expense had the terms not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. An additional expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification. Where an award is cancelled by the entity or by the counterparty, any remaining element of the fair value of the award is expensed immediately through profit or loss.

- e) The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

K. Leases

The Company has adopted IndAS 116, effective from annual reporting period beginning April 1, 2019 and applied the standard to its existing leases, with the modified retrospective method. This has resulted into recognition of Right of use assets at an amount equal to Lease liability on date of initial application (April 1, 2019).

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Company as a lessee

The Company accounts for each lease component within the contract as a lease separately from non-lease components of the contract and allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components.

The Company recognises right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term at the lease commencement date. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception is comprising of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any re-measurement of the lease liability. The right of-use assets are depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. The estimated useful lives of right-of-use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

The Company measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the Company's general borrowing rate. For leases with reasonably similar characteristics, the Company, on a lease by lease basis, may adopt either the incremental borrowing rate specific to the lease or the incremental borrowing rate for the portfolio as a whole. The lease payments include fixed payments, variable lease payments, residual value guarantees, exercise price of a purchase option where the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease. The lease liability is subsequently re-measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made and re-measuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications or to reflect revised in-substance fixed lease payments. The Company recognises the amount of the re-measurement of lease liability due to modification as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset and statement of profit and loss depending upon the nature of modification. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Company recognises any remaining amount of the re-measurement in statement of profit and loss.

The Company has elected not to apply the requirements of IndAS 116 Leases to;

1. Short-term leases of all assets that have a lease term of 12 months or less, and
2. Leases for which the underlying asset is of low value as agreed by the management.

The lease payments associated with above 2 types of leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

L. Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

a) Financial Assets

Financial assets comprises of investments in equity instruments, cash and cash equivalents, loans and other financial assets.

Initial Recognition:

All financial assets are recognized initially at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through Profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of financial assets. Purchase or sales of financial assets that requires delivery of assets within a period of time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place are recognized on the trade date, i.e. the date the Company committed to purchase or sell the assets.

Subsequent Measurement:

- i). Financial assets measured at amortized Cost:
Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost if these financial assets are held within a business whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and where contractual terms of financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

ii). Financial assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI):

Financial Assets that are held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collective contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding are subsequently measure at FVTOCI are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income.

Equity instruments held for trading are classified as at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL). For other equity instruments the Company classifieds the same as FVTOCI. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. Fair Value changes on equity instruments at FVTOCI, excluding dividends are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI)

iii). Fair Value through Profit or Loss (FVTPL):

Financial Assets are measured at FVTPL if does not meet the criteria for classification as measured at amortized cost or at FVTOCI. All fair changes are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

De-recognition of Financial Assets:

Financial Assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to cash flows from the financial assets expire or the financial assets is transferred, and he transfer qualifies for de-recognition. On de-recognition of the financial assets in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount (measured at the date of de-recognition) and the consideration received (including any new assets obtained less any new liabilities assumed) shall be recognized in the statement of Profit and Loss.

b) Financial Liabilities

The Company's financial liabilities include following:

- o Borrowing from Banks
- o Borrowing from Others
- o Trade Payables
- o Other Financial Liabilities

Classification

The Company's financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost.

Initial Recognition and Measurement

Financial liabilities are initially recognized at fair value plus any transaction costs, (if any) which are attributable to acquisition of the financial liabilities.

Subsequent Measurement:

Financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

The Effective Interest Rate Method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expenses over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability.

De-recognition of Financial Liabilities:

Financial liabilities shall be derecognized when, and only when it is extinguished i.e. when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

c) Offsetting of Financial assets and Financial Liabilities:

Financial assets and Financial Liabilities are offset, and the net amount is presented in Balance Sheet when, and only when, the Company has legal right to offset the recognized amounts and intends either to settle on the net basis or to realize the assets and liabilities simultaneously.

d) Reclassification of Financial Instruments:

The Company determines classification of financial assets and liabilities on initial recognition. After initial recognition, no reclassification is made for financial assets which are categorized as equity instruments at FVTOCI, and financial assets or liabilities that are specifically designated as FVTPL. For financial assets which are debt instruments, a reclassification is made only if there is a change in business model for managing those assets. Changes to the business model are expected to be very infrequent. The management determines the change in a business model as a results of external of internal changes which are significant to the Company's Operations. A Change in business occurs when the Company either begins or ceases to perform an activity that is significant to its operations. IF the Company reclassifies financial assets, it applies the reclassification prospectively effective from the reclassification date which is the first day of the immediately next reporting period following the change in business model. The Company does not restate any previously recognized gains, losses (including impairment gains or losses) or interest.

M. Fair Value Measurement

A number of Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the determination of fair value, for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. Fair value is the price that would be received on sell of an assets or plaid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the assets or liabilities or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the assets or liability. The principal market or the most advantageous market must be accessible to the Company.

The fair value of an asset or liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the assets or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the assets in its highest the best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the assets in its highest and best use.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Ind As Financial Statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole. The fair value hierarchy is described as below;

- Level 1 - unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.
- Level 2 - Input other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liabilities, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the IndAS Financial Statements at fair value on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization at the end of each reporting period.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risk of the asset or liability and the level of fair value hierarchy.

Fair values have been determined for measurement and / or disclosure purposes based on the following methods. When applicable, further information about the assumptions made in determining fair values is disclosed in the notes specific to that assets or liability.

a) Investment in equity and debt securities

The fair value is determined by reference to their quoted price at the reporting date. In the absence of quoted price, the value of the financial asset is measured using valuation techniques.

d) Trade and other receivables

The fair value of trade and other receivables is estimated as the present value of future cash flows, discounted at the market rate of interest at the reporting date. However, in respect of such financial instruments, fair value generally approximates the carrying amount due to short term nature of such assets.

c) Non derivative financial liabilities

Fair value, which is determined for disclosure purposes, is calculated based on the present value of future principal and interest cash flows, discounted at the market rate of interest at the reporting date. For finance leases, the market rate of interest is determined by reference to similar lease agreements.

N. Provision, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions

A provision is recognized when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

Contingent liability

A possible obligation that arises from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence

or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the enterprise are disclosed as contingent liability and not provided for. Such liability is not disclosed if the possibility of outflow of resources is remote.

Contingent assets

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity.

Contingent assets are not recognised but disclosed only

O. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management.

P. Earnings per share

Basic Earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit for the period attributable to the equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit for the period attributable to the equity shareholders and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Q. Cash flows

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flow. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on available information.

R. Current / non-current classification

An asset is classified as current if:

- It is expected to be realized or sold or consumed in the Company's normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- It is cash or cash equivalents unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

40 DISCLOSURES PURSUANT TO IND AS 19 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS(a) Define contribution plans:

The Company has certain defined contribution plans in which both employee and employer contribute monthly, at the rate of 12% of basic salary, as per regulations to provident fund set up as trust and to the respective regional provident fund commissioner.

The Company's contributions to provident fund, pension scheme and employee state insurance scheme are made to the relevant government authorities as per the prescribed rules and regulations. The Company's contributions to the above defined contribution plans are recognised as employee benefit expenses in the statement of profit and loss for the year in which they are due.

The Company's contribution to provident, pension, superannuation funds and to employees state insurance scheme aggregating to ₹ 7.11 Lakhs (Previous year – ₹ 1.55 lakhs) has been recognised in the statement of profit and loss under the head employee benefits expense [Refer note 33]

(₹ in Lakhs)

Contribution to provident fund, included under contribution to provident and other funds	7.11	1.84
Contribution to employee state insurance scheme, included under contribution to provident and other funds	3.85	-

(b) Defined benefits plans:(i) Gratuity

The Company provides for gratuity for employees as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The amount of gratuity shall be payable to an employee on the termination of his employment after he has rendered continuous service for not less than five years, or on their superannuation or resignation. However, in case of death of an employee, the minimum period of five years shall not be required. The amount of gratuity payable on retirement is the employees last drawn basic salary per month computed proportionately for 15 days salary multiplied by the number of year's service completed.

(ii) Risk exposure to defined benefit plans

The plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as: Investment risk, Liquidity risk, Market risk and Legislative risk.

Actuarial risk:

It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons:

Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in Obligation at a rate that is higher than expected.

Variability in mortality rates: If actual mortality rates are higher than assumed mortality rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cash flow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate.

Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rates are higher than assumed withdrawal rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.

Investment risk:

For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be the fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter-valuation period.

Liquidity risk:

Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the Company there can be strain on the cash flows.

Market risk:

Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has a material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects the time

The most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out at 31st March, 2025 by M/s Trueval Consulting. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.

Significant actuarial assumptions for the determination of the defined obligation are discount rate and expected salary increase. The sensitivity analysis given below have been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the respective assumptions occurring at the end reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant.

(₹ in Lakhs)
Particulars	2024-25	2023-24

100 Basis Point Salary Increase Escalation Rate	79.08	65.28
100 Basis Point Salary Decrease Escalation Rate	62.29	(51.00)

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligation as it is unlikely that the changes in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation liability recognized in the balance sheet.

Level 2: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable. This includes unquoted floating and fixed rate borrowing.

Level 3: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable. This includes unquoted equity shares, loans, security deposits, investments in Debentures, floating rate borrowings.

(d) Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortized cost

The Management has assessed that fair value of loans, trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, other bank balances, other financial assets, trade payables and other financial liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to their short-term nature. Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. Credit risk encompasses both, the direct risk of default and the risk of deterioration of credit worthiness.

Credit risk arises primarily from financial assets such as trade receivables, investments in mutual funds, cash and cash equivalent and other balances with banks.

In respect of trade receivables, credit risk is being managed by the Company through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the creditworthiness of customers to which the Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business. All trade receivables are also reviewed and assessed for default on a regular basis. The concentration of credit risk is limited due to the fact that the customer base is large.

(C) Liquidity risk

- (i) Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due. Due to the nature of the business, the Company maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining availability under committed facilities.
- (ii) Management monitors rolling forecasts of the Company liquidity position and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flows. The Company takes into account the liquidity of the market in which it operates. In addition, the Company's liquidity management policy involves projecting cash flows in major currencies and considering the level of liquid assets necessary to meet these, monitoring balance sheet liquidity ratios against internal and external regulatory requirements and maintaining debt financing plans

Maturities of financial liabilities:

The tables below analyse the Company's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities for all non-derivative financial liabilities. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant
